Bouncing DVD : The Game Torrent Download [key]

Download ->->->-> <http://bit.ly/2SHVPK6>

About This Game

It's a simple concept, get the DVD to the corner of the screen. The feeling of joy once you get it there is what makes this game so fun and addicting.

Bouncing DVD : The Game is based on a bygone tech where you put silver circles into a plastic box and you could watch movies!

This system was brilliant and even more so of the discovery of a feature when the logo on the idle screen, would... one in a blue moon, hit the corner of the screen. Thousands of flip phone recordings show the moment when this very event happens. Blah blah blah, that time is over...

UNTIL TODAY

Now you can take control of the DVD logo and try to hit the corners. Your controls are limited so it takes real skill and maybe a bit of luck to even get 5 corner hits!

The world record, set by yours truly is 5000. Can you beat it?

This game is a free to play timewaster. Enjoy it, loathe it and uninstall it. That's what we did!

REVIEWS

We have one review-sounding comment from one of our playtesters which perfectly sums up the game, which we will leave you

Sale? Sale!? SALE!:

Helllllllooo. We're doing a huge sale over at <https://itch.io/s/17509/the-rooms4rockets-fundraiser> right now! Go get it!. Bounce Into Action!:

Welcome one and all to the Bouncing DVD : The Game Steam Page!

I'm a one man team who loves making games!
This game is a fun, timewasting free to play game.

The original game will always be free to play, there might be DLC coming in the future that will cost a small amount, 5 bucks or less, that won't be pay to win. I believe in fair gameplay. The scores on the paid DLC will not appear on the free to play leaderboard, so it's completely fair!

Follow us (me) on twitter : (@RoomsForRockets) to keep up with the gamedev life! 🤪. Bounce Onto Steam!:

We're out, guys! The game is out, woo! We've decided to delay the game's DLC for a small period of time, enjoy the game!.

Big Update! (Plus other stuff):

Hey bouncers! How's it going? We've just released the first ever update (woo!) so get hyper!

This update includes the most requested fix, so that's great, turns out it was a small overlooked thing and it's all good now!

In the meantime, we've also set up a discord! Woo, it's a bit bare bones now but i'm sure as a community we can make it even better. Links below

I also have a patreon, so if you fancy chucking us a couple (or a few) bucks, we'd be grateful - links below!

We also have a twitter, follow us there - link below!

Cheers,

Alex. Get 4 Games for $3:

Hey there guys! Alex here, don't worry, i've not started working with some shady companies, no no, these are my games!

I'm doing a sale over at itch for all my games, for 3 dollars.

Here's the games:

- A Shawn Story : Our most popular game, which has had over 15k downloads across different platforms. It has around 16 endings. The story premise is that you're late for work - AGAIN!

- Dies Natalis : Our least popular game, which has literally tens of downloads. The story is you've come home from... whatever you do and discover that there are many many dark figures in your home.

- MISSINGOINGONE : Our complete middle of the ground game, this game got a completely average critic response. The story is you wake up in the street (?) and everyone's gone. Where are they?

- Play The Game : Our first ever published game, it's an classically shit game with no real gameplay. The "story" is that you try to play a game and just doesn't work.

Here's h
